

QUICKLINK EMAIL

Elemica QuickLink Network Solution

Why manually key faxed and Emailed orders into your ERP when you don't have to?

Imagine this! Integrating customers without requiring them to have integration software or other sophisticated technological capabilities is a reality. With Elemica QuickLink Email orders sent via Email or fax are transformed into electronic formats and data values that ERPs understand. Think about it like this: emailed orders show up almost magically in your SAP system as new sales orders, with no manual keying-in of the order.

Elemica's QuickLink Network is the secure, reliable communication backbone for your extended supply chain.
